SIERRA MADRE, CALIF. THURSDAY, MARCH 15, 1951

VOL. 45, NO. 18.

Around the Square

The City Council held a "star chamber" session following the regular meeting Tuesday night. It is reported that selection of a city administrator for Sierra Madre was considered at the "iron curtain" meeting.

Hmmm. Wonder who they chose.

The Councilmen spent 20 minutes Tuesday night debating what to write County Administrative Officer Wayne Allen regarding the proposed plan of freeways for the Los Angeles metropolitan area.

But the Board of Supervisors had already taken action on Tuesday morning on the recommendations made by 30 other cities. Ho, hum.

We think we saw a City Councilman and another, unidentified man pondering the "blind spot" on Kersting Court's alleged "street-lighting system" Tuesday night. No cars went by, however, and we didn't have our flashlight, so positive identification was impossible.

Sign-Ups Continue For 1st Aid Class

Sierra Madreams interested in enrolling in the second first-aid class which begins Wednesday, March 23, should contact Mrs. Florence Peterson, executive secretary of the local chapter, American Red Cross.

The course, which will meet Wednesday afternoons at 1:30, is designed particularly for local women, according to Harry Lange, first aid chairman of the ARC.

X-Ray Unit Here Today, Tomorrow

Today and tomorrow are x-ray days in Sierra Madre again. Adult Sierra Madreams (everyone over 15 years of age) may receive free chest x-rays from 7 to 7 p. m. today, March 15, and from 9 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. Friday.

A mobile x-ray unit of the Los Angeles County Health Department will be stationed in front of the Bank of Sierra Madre.

There is no charge to the individual for the service, time involved is less than a minute, and appointments are not necessary, County Health Officer Dr. Roy O. Gilbert said.

Although 1496 residents were x-rayed last November when the county-wide x-ray survey visited Sierra Madre, Dr. Gilbert pointed out that physicians and health officers strongly recommended x-rays for all

Fourteen Girls Vie In Queen Contest

Fourteen Sierra Madre area girls today were vying for a place among the finalists of the 1951 Sierra Madre Wistaria Vine Queen contest.

That many girls—four of them from over the line in Arcadia—were photographed under the vine earlier in the week by the Wistaria Vine's official photographer, Hank Hoag of Pasadena.

This marked the opening of the annual queen competition. The finalists will not be announced until later this month when the famed Wistaria Vine, the world's largest blossoming plant, is again opened to the public. The opening is expected to be about March 29.

A week later the queen will be picked. In the meantime, however, the five finalists will be feted to a round of activities, including the Press-Radio party under the vine and a tour of Hollywood radio and TV stations with possibly a look at the inside of a movie studio.

Three other girls had formally entered the contest, but because of the flu they were unable to appear for photographs. The Chamber of Commerce, sponsor of the annual Wistaria Fete, said that they would be given a chance to appear before the camera later this week.

Contestants in the Wistaria Queen contest are: Sheila Newman, 18, 161 Santa Anita Court; Linda Lee

TENNIS COURTS REPAIR ASKED

A "face-lifting" for Sierra Madre's tennis courts was proposed Tuesday night by Councilman Alexander Black.

The Council instructed Acting Director of Public Works G. B. Watson to investigate the condition of the courts with a view toward resurfacing them.

citizens at least once a year.

"And many Sierra Madreams have not been x-rayed at all," he said.

Reports of the chest pictures are confidential, and minors must have the written consent of their parents.

Besides tuberculosis, the tiny films can disclose chest tumors, unusual heart conditions, and other chest diseases, Dr. Gilbert stated.

Students to Compete at Lions Club

Three speakers from MAD High School and three from Muir College will compete at the Sierra Madre Lions Club tonight as the Lions' 14th Annual Student Speakers' Contest gets underway.

Winner of the contest to-night will represent the local club in the zone speaking contest. Then, if successful, he or she will compete in the regional contest, then the elimination, area, and final contests. Last year the local club's speaker, Pat Mosser, went all the way to the finals.

Ralph "Pappy" Welch is chairman of the Sierra Madre contest. The six speakers will each adapt the subject, "American Voters' Responsibility." The Lions meeting begins at 7 p. m. at the Woman's Clubhouse.

COUNTY BOARD OK'S TELETYPE

The County Board of Supervisors gave its formal OK Tuesday to Sierra Madre's hooking up with the county-wide teletype system.

Chief of Police Gordon G. McMillan had requested the sheriff's wire service as an aid in police protection and as a direct connection with the state's air raid warning network.

SHIPPEY RELATES ANECDOTES OF EARLY STATE HISTORY

Little-known incidents and colorful anecdotes in California's history were related Tuesday by Lee Shippey, Sierra Madream, author, lecturer, columnist, and humorist.

Addressing the interclub meeting of the Sierra Madre and Claremont Kiwanis Clubs, Mr. Shippey said Californians have inherited the habit of "doing the impossible."

"The first Californians came here with the swaggering, swashbuckling spirit that nothing was impossible," the veteran newspaperman said. "That same spirit has been inherited by Californians today."

He said the state is full of people "who didn't amount to a damn before they came here."

Mr. Shippey pointed out that it was only "by the grace of God" that the state sons of California were not all born Russians. The kin of a Russian czar would have married the daughter of a future California governor had he not died during his return trip through Siberia.

"And up until 1842," he related, "Fort Ross, a portion of land above San Francisco, was a territory of Russia. It was

BOARD PUTS SIERRA MADRE WITH PASADENA COURTS

An Editorial:

OUR COURT DISTRICT

Sierra Madre residents this week won a political victory. This is newsworthy because as a rule only individuals interested in politics win political victories.

The Board of Supervisors is responsible for dividing the entire county into inferior court judicial districts under the mandate of the voters which last November approved a state constitutional amendment.

The board had been told to "ignore politics" and keep faith with the people by Chief Justice Phil S. Gibson of the State Supreme Court. But when it comes to moving judges out of their jobs and arranging the courts, it is hard to forget political commitments and considerations.

The courts were established for the people—not for judges and attorneys. Sometimes it is hard for judges and attorneys to realize this.

But the Board of Supervisors voted 4 to 1 (Supervisor Herbert C. Legg of the First District dissenting) to give consideration to something other than politics in Sierra Madre's problem.

In the belief that the courts should be as readily available to the people as possible, the Board voted to put Sierra Madre in Pasadena principally because there is public transportation only to Pasadena and because travel habits of this city are generally to and through Pasadena.

And in Pasadena Sierra Madre residents will find one judge for every 58,000 population as against 87,000 population for the one judge that will be in the Monrovia district.

Owner Protests Assessment For 'Unsatisfactory Lights'

A property owner protested her assessment for the new business district street lighting system Tuesday night on grounds that the new lights "have proved totally unsatisfactory."

Mary D. Caley, who owns six stores in the Kersting Court area, wrote the City Council that her six tenants are "disappointed and disgusted" with the new lighting system.

The Council, however, overruled and denied Mrs. Caley's protest and confirmed the assessment.

Councilman Henry Korsmeier, who made the motion, stated that he understood the lights were put in as requested by property owners in the district and that the city, therefore, cannot be blamed for any lack of light in the area.

Mr. Korsmeier said he understood the property owners made a change in the original Edison Company plan "to effect a saving."

Mrs. Caley pointed out that the six stores are supposed to receive adequate lighting from the one standard with its sickly flicker, located in front of the Sierra Madre Newsstand.

"It was understood by these tenants and myself . . . that there would be a standard placed across the street at the depot, adding that much more light to Kersting Court," she said. "But for some reason that

These and many other items are being collected by the Sierra Madre Chapter, American Red Cross, for distribution to service and state hospitals, a military station, and the Merchant Marine Library in San Pedro.

SUPERVISORS OVERRIDE HERBERT LEGG'S VETO

Sierra Madre this week was placed in the proposed Pasadena municipal court district by action of the Board of Supervisors.

The vote of the county board was 4 to 1. The dissenter was Supervisor Herbert C. Legg who held to the belief that Sierra Madre should be kept in the old Monrovia township which will become the Santa Anita Municipal Court district on January 1, 1953.

The other four members of the county board agreed that residents of Sierra Madre would be better served if joined to Pasadena.

They voted for this realignment because:

1. Sierra Madre has public transportation only to Pasadena.

(To get to Monrovia where the other court seat will be established, Sierra Madreams would have to travel by public transportation to San Marino and then transfer to an out-going car to Monrovia.)

2. General traffic habits of most Sierra Madreams are through Pasadena.

(By being joined to the Pasadena Court most Sierra Madreams would find it more convenient in posting bail for such minor things as parking tickets and minor traffic citations.)

The four members of the board voting for joining Sierra Madre to Pasadena had taken heed of the advice of State Supreme Court Justice Phil S. Gibson, who, during two meetings with the supervisors, declared: "At any expense keep politics out of the court reorganization."

The reorganization of the inferior courts of the county will be affected under provisions of Proposition 3 which was approved by voters of the state last November 7.

PE Explains Refusal on Route 'Loop'

Pacific Electric this week amplified and explained their reasons for not granting an extended bus route loop for Sierra Madre.

In a letter to Chamber of Commerce Secretary Edna Hewitt, Traffic Manager H. O. Marler stated that due to scheduling and operating conditions, "we are unable to give consideration to the extension of route at this time."

Mr. Marler said the present "lay-overs" in Sierra Madre, time between trips, as approximately four minutes throughout the day with an occasional lay-over of several minutes more. "On this basis it would

RC Drive Not Even Half Way to Goal

With more than two weeks of soliciting behind them, Sierra Madre's Red Cross fund campaign workers Tuesday were not even half way to their goal of $6416.

Carl Hansen, 1951 drive chairman, said $2529.48 had been collected by noon Tuesday.

He urged residents to "dig deep" and help the Red Cross meet its obligations locally. House-to-house canvassers still are calling on citizens and making "call-backs" where necessary.

"Sierra Madre never has failed to meet its Red Cross quota," Mr. Hansen said. "Let's not let it happen this year."

The drive chairman again urged people working out of

Firemen Plan Annual Easter Egg Party

Sierra Madre's Volunteer Firemen this week are completing plans for their annual Easter Egg Party at the City Park, to be held Saturday, Mar. 24, beginning at 2 p. m.

More than 600 local youngsters—under 12 years of age—are expected at the traditional event.

Fire Chief James C. Heasley promises prizes for the egg-rolling and egg-on-spoon contests during the afternoon. Following the Easter egg hunt, silver dollars will be awarded the boys and girls finding the most eggs and those finding golden-colored eggs.

Money to finance the Easter Egg Party comes from the firemen's Christmas Dance fund.

Garbage Rates To Rise 100% For Residents

The cost of garbage collection soared 100 per cent for Sierra Madreams this week as the City Council gave first reading to an amendment to the city's garbage ordinance.

Under the amendment, the monthly collection fees for single-family dwelling units will rise from 50 cents to $1. The 50-cent rate has been in effect since January of 1947.

Councilman Henry Korsmeier pointed out that the rate increase is necessary because the garbage collection at present is costing the city exactly $1 a month for each single-family dwelling. He said the city, in effect, has been underwriting this difference since the costs of operating went up.

The amendment also calls for a rate of 50 cents for each unit of a multiple-family dwelling, with a minimum of $1.50 and a maximum of $8 per month per water meter.

For commercial establishments or other places of "unusual accumulation" of garbage or non-combustible materials, the rate will be "no less than $1.50 a month."

Cub Pack One To Meet Tomorrow

Sierra Madre Cub Scout Pack 1 will meet tomorrow, March 16, at the City School auditorium, beginning at 7:45 p. m. Ralph Hurwit, local Scout District committeeman, said an interesting program is planned. New officers of the pack committee will be announced at the April pack meeting, Mr. Hurwit said.

SCOUT DISTRICT GROUP TO MEET

A combined Boy Scout District Committee meeting and "roundtable" is scheduled for Monday, March 19, 7:30 p. m., at the Parkhouse. Milton Goldberg, Sierra Madre committee chairman, will preside over the meeting to which all scouters or adult leaders are especially invited.

FIRE FLAMES

"There is nothing that fills my mind with more apprehension when I am away from home, more than fire. I request, therefore, that every charge, and every precaution against the bad effects of it, may be given, and used, during my absence, to guard against the danger of it."

—Written by George Washington from Philadelphia, to James Anderson, his farm manager, on January 15, 1797.

Fires destroyed $688,460,000 in American property in the year 1950. The loss in Sierra Madre remains low. For a city of nearly 8000 people—we have much to be proud of. The 1950 figure for the nation is slightly less than the year 1948 when the worst during the past 15 or 20 years was $715,074,000.

Your fire fighters were elated over the success of Friday's fire drill, despite the fact that there was enough hose in the street to strangle an elephant. Because we are not equipped with an entire change of hose at each drill or fire, the hose must be removed and replaced occasionally to assure its condition. Formerly, our good Assistant Chief Norris, was noted for the long lays, but since he has grown older (or sumpin') he is not quite so reliable in that way as of former years.

A big truck in small quarters was about all Driver Joe Grippi cared to handle. The enormous steering wheel almost hid Joe from view.

It is sincerely hoped that the usual whimsicality (big word) of the fire fighters during the drill did not disturb the social affair at the Masonic Temple, or any other person of the neighborhood. Joviality prevails regardless of how much hose has to be returned to the truck or how much hard work is involved.

It is very important that the men become acquainted with the many dangerous spots about the city. There is no other way to do this than to actually perform the real act.

The green weeds grow in our lots throughout, and the seeds of danger begin to sprout, but when they dry, there is no doubt, there's danger of fire, so you best watch out.

One way to prevent fire is to eliminate all dangerous growth before it becomes dry. Ten feet clearance around an incinerator is not asking too much. Many fires have started from this source. An incinerator is not an approved incinerator unless it is properly screened to prevent sparks from soaring thru' the air.

The regular business meeting of the fire fighters was held without mishap or black eyes. There were times when it looked as though the chairman might let go of his gavel. It's aim was directed toward the northwest.

However, arrangements have been made for the coming Easter Egg Roll at the City Park, to be held Saturday, March 24, at 2 p. m. The firemen will color eggs and fill bags with easter candy to be given to all children under twelve who attend.

This annual affair was greatly hampered last season by a hard rain. If it rains, the candy will be held for another distribution elsewhere. All children are invited to come and join in the games, for which valuable prizes will be given.

Robert Heasley (who does not claim relationship to Chief Heasley) was elected to the auxiliary list of fire fighters. He is a resident, with a wife, a small daughter, and lives on Vista Circle Drive. He will be a great asset to the Canyon area.

Civilian defense is not forgotten at the meetings and plans are always in order.

After reading the terrific loss of the nation by fire, we are

Kiwanis Club Hears Jones, Lt. Governor

Dexter D. Jones, lieutenant governor of Kiwanis Division 15, made his official visit to the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club last week.

During his talk, Mr. Jones complimented the club on "the good work you are doing in regards to youth work, Campfire Girls, Boy Scouts, the Nursery School, and Youth Hut."

The speaker referred to the 1951 Kiwanis theme, "Freedom Is Not Free," pointing out that "a terrible price already has been paid and an eternal vigilance is necessary to prevent an even more horrible cost."

Mr. Jones outlined briefly each of the nine Kiwanis objectives, stating that they are "a challenge to greater effort."

The first objective goes like this: "Uphold the United Nations in its efforts to enact, interpret, and enforce international law, and in its battle to preserve the free nations of the world."

Roy Pickett inducted Bernard George Eberle as a new member into the Sierra Madre Club. Mr. Eberle moved here from Pasadena last November.

Area YMCA Plans Circus

Twenty-four spine-tingling and amusing acts are promised San Gabriel Valley residents who attend the West Brothers' Indoor Circus Wednesday, March 21, at Monrovia-Arcadia-Duarte High School auditorium.

The show is being sponsored by the Santa Anita YMCA District, and a portion of the proceeds will go to the YMCA. Two performances are scheduled, a matinee at 2 p. m., and the evening show beginning at 7:30.

Among the animal acts featured is a troupe of elephants. Top-notch aerialists also will highlight the circus. This is the first time the YMCA District has undertaken such a show, and it is hoped it may become an annual event.

more alert and hope for another successful year to follow. We need the help of every resident to prevent fires.

Always remember that bed mattresses are very, very inflammable. A smoldering cigarette will create enough smoke to overcome a sleeping person until a slight draft of air turns the smoldering into a blaze. The result is horrible to imagine.

It has happened, but not here. Let's keep the FIRES OUT.

Be an expert driver—not an ex-spurt driver.

Church Plans St. Patrick's Day Dance

Following a St. Patrick's Day theme, the Mothers' Club and Altar Society of St. Rita's Church will sponsor a dance and party Saturday, March 17, beginning at 8 p. m. in the Parish Hall.

Dancing and games are planned for the evening, with refreshments featuring ham sandwiches, cake and coffee. Mrs. Ervin J. Podliska is refreshments chairman for the event.

Members of the sponsoring organizations, their friends and families are invited to attend.

ALA Unit To Meet Mar. 22

Church Plans Three Holy Week Events

Holy Week will be observed at Congregational Church by three services, the Rev. Carl Smith, minister, announced this week.

On Palm Sunday, March 18, the morning worship service will feature special anthems by the Carol and Chancel Choirs with a sermon by Mr. Smith.

The Sacrament of Holy Communion and the Office of Tenebrae are planned for Moundy Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. This is a fourth century service in which lights are extinguished symbolizing the flight of the disciples on the night of betrayal. When the light is extinguished, the altar of the church will remain in darkness until Easter morning.

At that time, at 8 a. m., the Pilgrim Youth Fellowship will serve Easter breakfast, followed by two similar worship services at 9:30 and 11 o'clock. Choral anthems, the baptism of children, reception of new members, and a sermon will be included in the services.

The new COPE elected Mr. Fogg, prominent industrialist, chairman at its first meeting.

The Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce is planning a series of weekly letters by Chamber members to let Sierra Madreans know what the Chamber is doing and trying to do. The first in this series is written by A. H. Wetherbee, Chamber President.

Our Chamber is trying to be an all-inclusive civic organization operating for the good of the whole community, not just the business area or any group alone. Naturally what benefits any one, benefits all of us. We ask the participation of all townspeople who feel that by working together we can keep Sierra Madre the way we want it to be—and who also feel that by working together we can improve some things that do need improving.

We have set up classifications of membership that fit all situations and pocketbooks. We stick to Chamber of Commerce rules in the feeling that the merchants should bear the brunt in costs, therefore downtown business memberships are $25.00. Active residential memberships are sliced down to $5.00.

We feel that we have accomplished much in the past few years, but we see much that still needs doing. The Chamber is proud of its unique yearly Christmas program, which is becoming known throughout the state. It is through Chamber insistence that the street works program was set for a time advantageous and convenient to all. The conversion of the little P. E. Station and our town square into a civic center has been a Chamber project for many months—and a project that we know will be successful.

Off-street parking for the convenience of Sierra Madreans is another big thing on our hands—and that, too, we know can be licked if we work together. The extension of the Pacific Electric bus route has been temporarily balked—but we aren't through yet. The installation of automatic traffic signals on our two neighboring danger corners—Foothill Blvd. and Baldwin and Michillinda avenues is another improvement we're plugging for.

I've mentioned briefly only a few of our ideas. We'd like to hear your ideas, too, and need your help. Join our Chamber meetings—we meet regularly the first Monday of each month in the Council Chambers of the City Hall at 8 p. m.

John Baer and Maude Wallace head the Playhouse cast under Barbara Vajda's direction. Jim Cassidy, Virginia Hall, Denny Hawkins, Grant Scott, and Dorsey Lewis complete the cast.

Bethany Church Building to Start As Soon as Possible

Bethany Church last week authorized the building committee to proceed "as soon as possible" on construction of additional Sunday School space.

Bids for the work have been let, and many of the church men will get together Saturday to begin razing two old buildings which must come down before construction can begin.

William Spargur, in charge of the "razing crew," announced that the ground should be ready for the new construction immediately after Easter, March 25.

The new building, which will extend Fellowship Hall 35 feet to the west, will consist of two floors detailed to match the present structure. The 2700-square feet of floor space will include a nursery with infants, toddlers, and nursery-class rooms, two assembly rooms, three class rooms, a kitchenette, and an office-library.

John Bush, building committee chairman, believes costs can be kept below $12,000 with the help of volunteer labor. The finance committee, headed by F. D. R. Moote, announces that a program of out-right gifts and pledging will be employed to finance the building.

Kiwanis Club to Attend Church

Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club will attend, as a body, next Sunday's (March 18) morning worship service of the Congregational Church.

The Kiwanians have designated four special "go-to-church-Sundays" for their attendance at church as a club. The Sundays are March 18, June 3, Sept. 23, and Dec. 2.

A different church will be visited each time, according to Roy Pickett, support of churches chairman of the Kiwanis Club. In addition, Kiwanians will strive to maintain 100 per cent attendance at their respective churches throughout the year, and particularly, during the four "special-emphasis" months March, June, September, and December, Mr. Pickett said.

Soldier Fined For 'Hit, Run'

Cpl. Patrick Harrington of Camp Cooke was arraigned and fined Saturday afternoon for "hit-and-run" driving.

The soldier, whose home town is listed as Los Alamitos, Calif., was charged with backing into a car belonging to Helen B. Smith, 323 W. Highland, and driving off without checking damage and contacting Mrs. Smith.

Judge John C. Mead fined Corporal Harrington $10 and ordered that he "make restitution" to the car owner.

BOARD PUTS

ment means that Sierra Madre's city police court will be eliminated. This elimination will take place in January, 1953, after municipal court judges are elected for the district next year.

All city ordinances will be enforced through the municipal court instead of the city police court. Parking and traffic citations will have to be taken to the municipal court. The city will receive a return directly from the court from fines collected for city ordinance violations.

It was Supervisor Raymond V. Darby who made the motion for the inclusion of Sierra Madre in the Pasadena Court district. He cited the transportation problem of the city and the general travel habits of the residents of Sierra Madre as legitimate reasons for placing Sierra Madre in the Pasadena court.

He was supported by Supervisors Leonard Roach, John Anson Ford and Chairman Roger W. Jessup.

Supervisor Roach said that he would not go along with approving three municipal court judges for Pasadena unless Sierra Madre were included.

Supervisor Legg declared that the issue in Sierra Madre was "highly controversial." He was told however, that the matter was not controversial among residents or businessmen of the city.

The directors of the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce unanimously adopted a resolution asking the Board of Supervisors to include the city in the Pasadena district, principally because of the transportation problem.

This action of the Chamber was affirmed at a later meeting.

The City Council, however, adopted a resolution on motion of Councilman Noren Eaton, asking the board to place Sierra Madre in the old Monrovia district. Only three members of the council—William Kinney, Alexander Black and Mr. Eaton—were present at that meeting.

Councilman Herman Barter and City Judge John C. Mead, however, had declared themselves in favor of joining with Pasadena.

Coed Represents Muir at Meeting

Among the 11 campus leaders from John Muir College who attended the junior college regional planning meeting was Sierra Madiran Julie Conzelman.

Two hundred Southern California JC student government leaders met March 3 and 4 in San Diego to prepare their agenda for the State JC Student Government Conference to be held in Long Beach April 26, 27, and 28.

Miss Conzelman attended the planning workshop on athletics.

Rev. Rood to Speak Sunday

The Rev. Don Rood, candidate for pastor at Bethany Church, will lead both the morning and evening services next Sunday, March 18, in the cobble-stone church at Baldwin and Montecito.

Mr. Rood's morning message subject is "More Than Conquerors." The 7:30 service will be entitled "God's Deadline." Mrs. Rood and their 15-month-old son, Rickie, will accompany the candidate.

A native of Glendale, Mr. Rood formerly held a pastorate in Compton. Since then he has done evangelistic work in the East and Pacific Northwest. A graduate of Glendale College, Mr. Rood received his theological training at the Eastern Baptist Seminary in Philadelphia.

The pulpit committee of Bethany Church, with E. S. Thornberry as chairman, has called a special business meeting for Wednesday night, Mar. 21, to consider the calling of Mr. Rood. The Bethany pulpit has been empty since the Rev. Clarence Nida resigned Jan. 1 to accept a pastorate in Burbank.

Work Starts On Church For Baptists

Hopes for a new home for the First Baptist Church were being realized this week as volunteer workers began renovating the recently-purchased structure at 49 S. Baldwin.

The Rev. A. J. Jacobson, pastor, said it is tentatively planned that services will be held at the new location on Sunday, April 1.

For the past year, services of the church membership have been held at the Woman's Clubhouse.

FRIDAY EVENING DATE OF VALENCIA BRIDAL SHOWER

Guests to the number of nearly forty have been invited to a miscellaneous bridal shower tomorrow evening by hostesses Therese Cole, Sal-Lea Wohler, Ann Williams and Carole Kelly honoring Valerie Valencia.

The event is to be held at the home of Miss Valencia, 654 Fairview Ave. Her marriage to Bruce Newbery will take place March 31st at St. Rita's Church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Valencia.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McLeod, 265 Rancho Road, are staying at the Mona Hotel during their visit to the Hawaiian Islands.

Camp Fire Girls Note 41st Birthday

This week, March 11-17, is the birthday celebration of Camp Fire Girls organization which was founded 41 years ago by Dr. and Mrs. Luther Gulick. It evolved from the demand for constructive leisure-time activities for girls.

A family potluck dinner tonight, (March 5), 6 p. m. at the City School cafeteria will highlight the week for all Sierra Madre Bluebirds, Camp Fire Girls, and Horizon members.

Colored slides of camp life and other Camp Fire activities will be shown. Families and members of sponsoring groups have been invited to share in the celebration.

"Everybody Counts," is the theme of the birthday projects for the year. Birthday week always starts off with "Go to Church Sunday," and last Sunday saw the various local groups attending church with their leaders.

A window display in Harry Lange's office window shows some of the ways local Camp Fire Girls have demonstrated their belief that they are interested in everyone, that "Everybody Counts."

Nursery Group Talk Child Problems

The next board meeting of the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School Association Tuesday evening will be a panel meeting as well as the occasion of the in-coming and out-going Board of trustees. The new officers will be elected at this time.

The meeting convening at 7:15 p. m. will conclude with a parent speaker discussion: subjects—Theory and Practice; Enjoy Your Children as They Are; Brother and Sister Relationships; Life with Father; We Learn by Experience.

Mrs. Marian Gale will return to Sierra Madre to act as moderator for the discussion.

POETS MAY ENTER CONTEST

Sierra Madre's "Tennysons" and "Byrons" were alerted this week for the 12th annual poetry contest of the California Federation of Chaparral.

Five separate contests are open to all adult residents of California, with prizes of $15, $10, and $5 going to the three winners in each contest.

The contests are for original unpublished poems of these categories: Sonnets, either Shakespearean or Italian; California poems, 32 line limit, any form; American Heritage, 32-line limit, any form; Irish poetry, 32-line limit, any form; and humorous verse, 32-line limit, any form.

Typewritten entries must be sent to Will Strong, 1628 1/2 S. San Gabriel boulevard, San Gabriel, by April 7.

SHIPPY RELATES

purchased in 1841 by John Sutter.

It was largely fear of Russia that caused Spain in 1769 to sell California to Mexico, he stated.

California might also have been a territory of England, the author said, had it not been for the "blessed fog of San Francisco." "Had that great British explorer, Sir Francis Drake, ever laid eyes on the Golden Gate on his way down from Drake's Bay, England surely would have claimed the area as its own."

"Down through the years there always has been a special providence guarding California," Mr. Shippey observed.

The Sierra Madrean has written several books, among them "The Los Angeles Book" and "It's an Old California Custom." He was introduced by Dr. Earl Gossard, chairman of the day.

OWNER PROTESTS

standard has never materialized.

Councilman Noren Eaton said he saw no standard in the plan where Mrs. Caley says one was to be placed.

"Here again is an instance of how people, not properly informed, make decisions which result in a disadvantage," he said.

The "blind spot" is due, to a large extent, to the pepper tree in front of Hopper's Jewelry Store, Mr. Eaton contended.

City Attorney T. Guy Cornyn said yesterday that, legally, if the city decides another light is needed, it can either form another special assessment for the one light or it can order the light installed at its own expense as a "civic gesture."

HAVE ANY OLD

Toro Marine Base, the Norwalk State Hospital, and the seamen's library.

Among the things needed by the veterans' hospital are empty jars and caps, to be used for mixing paints by convalescing patients. A complete list of items needed is available at the local Chapter House, 41 S. Baldwin.

The Merchant Marine library seeks "any and all" kinds of magazines and books—new and old. The Marine base has requested small pocket-size books to accompany men going overseas.

"At present," Mrs. Haskins said, "the need seems to be urgent for supplies of this type." Articles may be left at the Chapter House, or they can be collected by contacting Mrs. Haskins.

From the battlefields of Korea to teaching school in San Francisco is quite a stride since the 25th of November.

Sgt. 1-c Kenneth McLaughlin began teaching infantry tactics as an ROTC officer in the San Francisco school area March first. McLaughlin was wounded November 25th in Korea, was returned to the States for treatment and rest and spent a month in Sierra Madre with his wife and small daughter, Cheryl, at 390 N. Baldwin.

Mrs. McLaughlin will eventually join her husband in the bay area when suitable housing is available.

DOWN THE LANES

Sierra Madre Merchants were knocked over for 3 losses last week. The captain of the team claims, "It was due to the boys having to lay off the previous week, and not bowling for two weeks does something to you."

Well that's as good a reason as I've heard yet, so I guess that was it.

In the Ladies' division, Mable DuFour's Atlantic Bedding Co. team is moving right up there each week. But why not, with such series as the 2652 they shot last week? They deserve to move. Mable shot a nice 564 series herself to help the team along.

I see by the schedule for the 10th Annual Tournament of the San Gabriel Valley Bowling Assn. that the local merchants team is bowling on the 17th of March at 7:00 p. m. Now if any of you would care to watch the boys in action, under pressure, here is the dope.

Place: Alhambra Recreation Center 611 West Main street, Alhambra, Alley No. 12 at 7:00 o'clock, Mar 17, no admission charge, lots of seats. Come out and cheer the boys on to win.

Then on March 25 at 1:00 p. m., Art's Little Chicks team, also made up of local bowlers, will do their stuff in the same building but on alley No. 2. On the same day at 3:30 p. m. R. Valencia, F. Krinke, H. Mazzaro and Joe Murphy will bowl in the doubles and singles matches.

ON THE FAIRWAYS

A new champ is born. Fred Krinke is now the Kingfish of our local Elks foursome. At Brookside Golf course Sunday, with little ado and no fanfare, Krinke stepped forth and with full determination to pin somebody's ears back and did so as the best Andy Liscomb could do was a mere 85. Ed Keating came somewhat closer with an 84. Geo Larson is recovering very fast from his illness, so I hear. Could be that was the reason for Krinke's burst of professional art Sunday.

Seems as though George Larson dropped a note to a friend of his and inferred that Fred was a much better bowler than a golfer. Well from where I sit it looks like a bang-up match in the making when George is again well enough to get out and bang that little white ball around the golf course for 18 holes.

SADDLE NOTES

Raiders, Fans 'Suffer' Through Dramatic Game

"Everything" happened in Sunday afternoon's ball game. And when it was all over, the Sierra Madre VFW Raiders and local ball fans were inspecting their heads for gray hairs.

During the early innings of the game between the Raiders and the LA Yankees, everything was bad for the locals. The Sierra Madreans had gone into reverse again and given up six unearned runs on seven errors and three crucial bases on balls. This included two runs in the sixth and eight innings without giving up any hits.

But it wasn't in the cards for the Raiders to lose three weeks in a row. Going into the last of the eighth inning, and four runs behind, the VFW team bunched five hits with two bases on balls, scoring six runs and putting the game on ice. "Mutt" Oaks, pitcher, held the Yanks in the first of the ninth, and the Raiders had salvaged another game with a late-inning spurge.

Larry Shepherd, manager of the Raiders, said Sierra Madre's "Faithful," the fans that stay until the last out, seemed to sense another Raider rally was in the making and yelled themselves hoarse. Sunday's crowd was unusually large, incidentally.

Here's how the dramatic eighth inning went: Dixon and Nielson walked; Evans singled, scoring Dixon; Schaefer singled, scoring Nielson; Jason filed out to third base; Shepherd batted for Vogel and singled, scoring Evans; Shepherd stole second base; (one run behind, the fans were getting laryngitis) Oaks struck out for the second out; Franco singled, scoring Schaefer and Shepherd; Frazier singled, scoring Franco; and Dixon filed out to the Yankee center fielder who made a nice, running-backward catch.

As if that weren't enough, spectators were able to see two plays—in the fifth and ninth innings—seldom executed in baseball. Right-fielders Vogel

M. Koppelman Dies in L. A.

Funeral services were held in New York City Sunday for Morris Koppelman, 10½ W. Highland, who died Thursday, March 8, in a Los Angeles hospital.

Mr. Koppelman, one of the founders and first presidents of the Foothill Jewish Community Center, was well-known in Sierra Madre for his philanthropic work. He recently took active part in planning the "City of Hope" in Duarte.

The retired paper products manufacturer was born in Russia 80 years ago. He came to the United States 61 years ago and was a resident of Sierra Madre for 15 years.

Mr. Koppelman is survived by his wife, Anna, a son, five daughters, two brothers and a sister.

Services Held For F. James

Private graveside services were conducted yesterday afternoon for Fred Atwood James, brother of John C. James, 649 W. Grandview, who died suddenly, March 11.

A resident of Los Angeles, Mr. James had been a resident of Southern California for three years. He was a native of Franklin, Tenn.

Besides his brother, Mr. James is survived by a niece, Alice James of Chicago, and two nephews, Henry T. James of Van Nuys and George N. James of Los Angeles.

The services at Live Oak Cemetery yesterday were officiated over by the Rev. Harley G. Smith Jr. Grant Chapel was in charge of arrangements.

20" x 3/4"

for immediate delivery upon notification of acceptance to successful bidder.

be impossible to extend the operation which naturally requires additional time," he said.

A PE spokesman said the dip on Grandview at Sycamore Place and the narrowness and poor condition of portions of the street make Grandview objectionable for bus use. The Chamber had proposed Grandview as a part of the suggested 3-mile route extension.

"With a loop route at the end of a line," Mr. Marler explained, "there is no natural lay-over point which means that either passengers destined to parts of the route or passengers originating on parts of the loop route are required to spend additional time in going between their points of travel."

"These conditions, together with the fact that the Sierra Madre line is at present operating in the red, preclude us from considering the extended operation proposed," he said.

Pupils to Start Easter Vacation

With the end of classes tomorrow, Sierra Madre's public and parochial school pupils will put their books on the shelf for a week.

The annual Easter vacation will be in effect from Monday, March 19, through Friday, March 23. Older students at Pasadena junior high schools and junior colleges also will have the week's vacation.
